About Prayagraj: Prayagraj, historically known as Allahabad, is one of India's most ancient and sacred cities, situated in the state of Uttar Pradesh. It occupies a unique spiritual position as the confluence (Triveni Sangam) of the Ganga, Yamuna, and the mythical Saraswati rivers. This sacred meeting point has made Prayagraj a major pilgrimage centre for centuries and the host of the world-renowned Kumbh Mela, one of the largest religious gatherings on earth. Hiuen Tsang documented King Harshavardhana's tradition of distributing his entire accumulated wealth to the public and monks every five years at the Sangam.

The city has played a pivotal role in India's political and intellectual history. During the freedom movement, it emerged as a significant centre of nationalist activities and was home to prominent leaders. Landmarks such as the Sangam, Allahabad Fort, University of Allahabad, Anand Bhavan, Bhardwaj Ashram, Company Bagh etc. and archaeological site like Belan Valley, Sringerpur, Jhansi, Kaushambi, Khusro Bagh reflect its rich historical legacy.

About University: Prof. Rajendra Singh (Rajju Bhaiya) University (PRSU), Prayagraj, is a premier NAAC 'A' accredited State University of Uttar Pradesh, established in 2016 under the Uttar Pradesh State Universities Act. Situated at Naini, Prayagraj, the University was founded to strengthen and expand access to quality higher education in the region. The University is committed to academic excellence, innovation and social responsibility. PRSU serves as an affiliating university for the Prayagraj division, covering the districts of Prayagraj, Pratapgarh, Kaushambi, and Fatehpur. Its vision is to build scholarship while fostering a culture in which innovation and collaboration play an important role by bringing together all stakeholders to provide world-class education & research which benefit society as a local, regional, national and global scale. Its prime mission is to offer integrated approaches for local, regional, national and global opportunities of higher learning, research and engagement to the diverse sets of students. The facilitation of learning by teaching, research, engagement and partnership. Academic excellence is the highest priority in this University. The University Teaching Departments offer UG/Integrated UG, PG and doctoral programs in various faculties. Currently, the University

Comprises of seven faculties: the Faculty of Arts, Science, Commerce & Management, Agriculture, Law, Pharmacy and Computer Science. The university is offering 46 programmes under the 36 University teaching departments. The University offers comprehensive facilities to promote the academic excellence and overall well-being of its faculty, students and staff. It features smart classrooms, advanced laboratories, computer centres and a fully digitalized central library with remote access to e-resources through MyLOFT, INFLIBNET and Shodh Shuddhi. The Wi-Fi-enabled campus includes hostel accommodation, yoga and health and transport service, and extensive indoor and outdoor sports facilities. Students benefit from LMS support, internships, skill development programmes and placement assistance. Faculty members are encouraged to undertake research, consultancy and collaborations, supported by seed grants, FDPs, seminars, workshops and robust ICT-enabled infrastructure with high-speed internet connectivity.

About Department: The Department of Ancient History, Culture and Archaeology at Prof. Rajendra Singh (Rajju Bhaiya) University, Prayagraj, established in 2016, has emerged as a vibrant centre for advanced teaching and research. Since its inception, the Department has steadily expanded its academic horizons, with focused specialization in Archaeology, Socio-economic History, Religion and Philosophy, Art and Architecture, and Ancient Indian Polity. The Department is served by four dedicated faculty members who are actively engaged in both research and pedagogy. The faculty are widely recognized for their scholarly contributions and are frequently invited to deliver keynote addresses and participate in national and international conferences and workshops. Several members also serve on the editorial boards of reputed peer-reviewed journals in the field of History and Archaeology. The Department offers rigorous and prestigious academic programmes including Ph.D., M.A., and Integrated IPA/B.A. courses under the CBCS framework, Credit and Grading System, in alignment with NEP-2020 guidelines. It is equipped with a History Museum and a well-established Archaeological Experimental Laboratory to provide practical exposure to students. Additionally, the Department offers one-year Postgraduate Diplomas in Archaeology and Museology, and in Tourism and Hospitality, promoting interdisciplinary learning and professional development.
